Film London is the Capitals Screen Industry Agency What we do | Film London All film makers must adhere to the Film London Code of Practice. Location Filming in London Code of Practice | Film London

The Film Office manages all aspects of filming in the borough and works with film makers to ensure that filming goes ahead smoothly. It also provides a one stop shop approach to filming, from liaising with highways and parking teams to working with residents, businesses, and Friends Groups. We pride ourselves on being film friendly and the popularity of the borough as a film destination is growing year on year.

The Met Police Film Services Unit (MPFSU) provide guidelines for filming on location, filming on the move, filming with firearms, weapons, nudity, drones, violence, emergency vehicles and actors dressed as police officers. Guidelines to follow when filming | Metropolitan Police

The British Film Commission provide guidance on everything needed to plan a production from tax reliefs and funding to studio space, locations, VFX, postproduction, crew and talent.

New Tricks at Hammersmith Town Hall

The price of the Notice to film is dependent on cast/crew size

- Small (up to 10 people)
- Medium (11 - 24 people)
- Large (25 – 49 people)
- Extra large (50+ people)

See website for prices

Street Filming

Small crews of five and under filming on the highway using handheld equipment need not apply for a notice to film, but please let us know as a matter of courtesy. Larger crews please complete the application to film form. We will assess the application and issue the notice to film. Notices range in price and is dependent on size of crew and equipment used.

If you're likely to be using tracks or anything else on the pavement or road, you must give us at least 10 working days' notice and provide a diagram of how you intend to go about your filming (pavement width, camera placing, track placing, lights, eze-ups). Pavements must have at least 1.5 metres for pedestrians to get past a film crew.

You should not deposit equipment on the street or remove or cover street furniture unless you clear this with us in advance. If you're placing hoarding, scaffolding or using cranes, cherry pickers or any type of mobile lifters you should apply for a license to do so Highways licences | LBHF

You should also be prepared to clear the public highway if we or the police ask you to do so.

We also ask you not to block public footpaths with vehicles.

Parking Suspensions

All parking in Hammersmith & Fulham is controlled, which means bays are shared by residents and visitors who pay and display a ticket.

When applying for parking suspensions please note that suspensions only apply during the controlled hours of the zone. Cones should not be placed on the highway before or after the suspensions begin and end. If you have any problems with illegally parked vehicles within the suspended area, please contact the Parking Services on

020 7371 5678

Monday to Friday 9am - 5pm
(excluding bank holidays).

Parking Suspensions

For small crews and short shoots of a few hours, pay and display parking is normally enough.

Parking bays can't be suspended for small crews using cars or people carriers. It's usually possible to use pay and display parking for these vehicles for the whole day.

For more information see Pay and display | LBHF

For large crews likely to be filming for a day or longer, you can apply to suspend parking bays. Parking bays are suspended for technical vehicles only.

Visit Suspensions and road closures | LBHF to apply and find out:

- the fees and how to pay
- the notice period you need to give
- what you need to do after you apply

Unit Bases

For information on unit bases please enquire via the Film Office 020 8753 2351 or visit our website Filming | LBHF

Permits and Licences

As part of our one stop shop approach to filming, we will advise and oversee the necessary licence and permit requests on your behalf (you will need to pay any associated fees before your filming permit can be issued). These are filming, parking bay suspensions, highways licences, traffic orders and network management.

Filming information for students

Students who wish to film in Hammersmith & Fulham locations need to send the following:

- a letter from the college confirming they are students.
- a completed application to film form.
- at least £5 million public liability insurance from the college.
- contact details of the tutor who will sign the film licence on behalf of the student.
